*RepoMax has developed a high profile auction program for the sale of Building & Home Remodeling Materials.

The most popular items we sell include interior and exterior doors, windows, trim, hardwood and laminate flooring, carpet, ceramic tile, floor trusses, composite decking, kitchen cabinets, jacuzzi tubs, plumbing and electrical fixtures, name brand tools and much more!

How Building Materials are Auctioned

Most Auctions have bidders from different states where your materials are needed. The frequency of our auctions provides us the ability to handle the most urgent situations.

By selling your materials in a RepoMax auction, you are truly selling to the world! We have a Bidder base of more than 117,000 bidders because they know they can count on RepoMax to provide a good selection of Building & Home Remodeling Materials.

Unparalleled Marketing

Our intensive marketing program ensures that our potential buyers are promptly informed about upcoming materials for auction. For each and every auction held, every registered buyer receives an email letting them know about our auctions and what will be in them.

In addition to emailing our registered buyer base our Marketing and Sales Professionals will implement an advertising campaign that is setup and handled for you. We have over 117,000 registered buyers in our network and depending on the equipment type, items and the auction advertising budget, this may also include flyers, postcards, catalogs, direct mailings, newspaper ads, trade publications and even web pages and TV spots.

The RepoMax web site allows customers to:

- View upcoming online auctions and item details
- Choose items to "watch" in current online auctions
- View completed auctions, item details and results

Valuing Your Building & Home Remodeling Materials

RepoMax can help you with valuing your materials, we have the know-how and expertise to provide accurate current market values.

Auction Day

Selling upwards of 1,000 items at every auction, including everything from roofing nails to swimming pools, RepoMax plans and organizes the sale in a logical order.

After the Auction

When you consign Building & Home Remodeling Materials at a RepoMax Auction, we take care of all the details. We help consignors with all their materials no matter auction size or value. No need to worry about collecting from multiple buyers and receivables.

After the auction we handle the collections, take care of sales tax issues, and pay out net proceeds directly to you in less than 20 days.
